OUT & ABOUT IN LECLAIRE!

The shops, eateries, cultural venues, and outdoor activities help our guests explore the authentic "Iowa Nice" experience of our river town. Finally, a place with events and activities as diverse as the people traveling to see us.

WHY LECLAIRE?

A trip to someplace new wouldn't be worth it without that flicker of anticipation and those little jumps of excitement deep in your belly. Take a walk down memory lane at our fascinating museum. Plan a day outdoors on the LeClaire Levee. You and your family will enjoy many new experiences and create memories that last a lifetime. Join us for unparalleled experiences all around, always designed with you in mind. LeClaire... our next chapter is still being written. Become a part of it.

LIVE EVENTS

LeClaire is known for its fun events — live music, wine and beer events, comedy shows, car shows, Tugfest, riverboat sightseeing cruises, LeClaire Fall Fest, and Christmas in LeClaire, just to name some of the fun things happening all year long.

LOCAL GEMS OF LECLAIRE

Let's plan your trip starting with these local highlights.

ANTIQUE ARCHAEOLOGY

Antique Archaeology specializes in the odd and unusual. LeClaire's very own Mike Wolfe co-hosts the popular History Channel show American Pickers and often films right here in town. Stop by to buy some gear and you might even catch Mike himself!

BUFFALO BILL MUSEUM

William F. "Buffalo Bill" Cody was born in LeClaire and worked as a U.S. frontiersman before turning to a fulfilled life of rodeo entertainment. Come explore his life while learning about other cultural moments in local area history. Plus, there's a 129-year-old steamboat, the Lonestar Steamer, that places you at the helm of history with interactive features and a chance to jump on board its well-preserved deck. Imagine exploring the open waters of the Upper Rapids on the wooden hull of a boat built for long days spent dredging sand up and down the river.

LIBATIONS LANE

With a brewery, distillery, and a winery all in a two-block radius, there's no reason to settle on just one spot for an afternoon or evening. Consider yourself lucky in LeClaire with a trip down Libations Lane!

Wide River Winery — Green Tree Brewery — Mississippi River Distilling Co.

EAGLE & PELICAN WATCHING IN LECLAIRE

Nature photographers and bird watchers alike will be delighted with the incredible opportunities at Lock and Dam Number 14 on the mighty Mississippi River. Capture amazing photos and witness the majestic sightings of bald eagles in the winter months and high-flying pelicans that call LeClaire home during the spring and summer months.

RIVERBOAT TWILIGHT

Come explore the mighty Mississippi River in style, comfort, and convenience! The Riverboat Twilight, at 126 feet in length, has the power and accommodations to make your next cruise one to remember.

CODY ROAD — IOWA GREAT RIVER ROAD SCENIC BYWAY

Today, over 60 structures create the historic Cody Road District in LeClaire, Iowa. This 9-block stretch of U.S. 67 reaches all throughout our river town and boasts picturesque views of the mighty Mississippi River while guiding you to all the best eateries and boutiques in our town.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER

Enjoy the beautiful river view, launch your boat, pack a picnic, or take in an event all at the easily accessible LeClaire Levee. And while you're there, visit Scott County Freedom Rock, a dedication to the brave men and women that have chosen to serve our country as soldiers, firefighters, police officers, and emergency responders. Located on the south end of the Levee.
